

Thank you Msunduzi - Zwane

BY XOLISILE SACOLO

SOCCER - TZ Festive Soccer Tournament sponsor Terrence Zwane has thanked all those who made the event a success.

He said he was motivated to continue sponsoring the tournament.

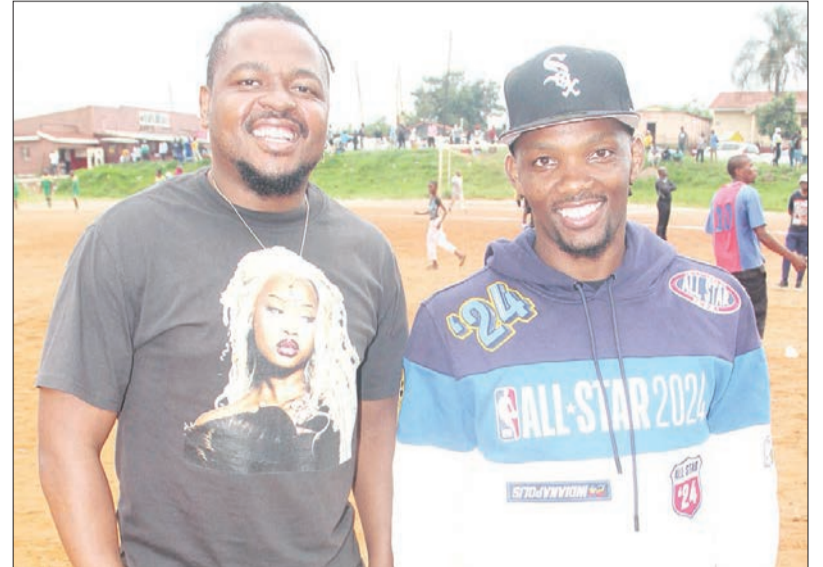

Zwane said judging from the attendance and that people were well behaved, 'kasi' football lovers and teams should start preparing for the annual festive tournament as it is set for a return later this year.

"I must say that the tournament was a huge success. It was really encouraging to see teams accepting results. I also like the fact that the games were violence-free."

Zwane said all the teams that took part in the tournament demonstrated true sportsmanship as they never complained about the outcome of the games.

"I was happy with how the tournament progressed, from the group stages to the finals. I must say that teams also displayed great football throughout the tournament."

Zwane, the sponsor, has religiously injected personal funds into the tournament in the past few years. He again made the assurance to continue sponsoring the tournament after the successful finals played at Msunduzi Sports Ground on Wednesday.

Impact

"The attendance here has given hope that the tournament is really having a huge impact in the lives of people of Msunduzi, which is why I want to keep my dream of having the games alive. People came to watch the games and they showed that they love this, so my promise is that we will have the tournament later this year, even with a bigger version if God permits," said Zwane.

The Liswati based in the US also revealed his inspiration behind the tournament.
